List of Revoked and Suspended Licenses

Note: Disciplinary action on complaints is not listed until the complaint case is “closed”. To check the complaint history of a contractor, home improvement contractor, limited licensed plumber or limited licensed electrician, you may contact our Board office by phone, at 800-544-7693; or fax a written request at (615) 532-2868; or email staff at the directory listed on the website at:
<http://www.state.tn.us/commerce/boards/contractors/index.html>

Specific details of “open” complaint cases cannot be released, as they are not public information until the investigation is closed. Complaint cases are not closed until the Board affords a contractor due process pursuant to the Uniform Procedures Act. This requires a formal hearing before an Administrative Judge, and if found guilty, the contractor is responsible for hearing costs, attorney fees and/or civil penalties assessed by the Board. The contractor may waive their right to a hearing and settle the case with a Consent Order and the case may then be closed.

You may also check on a contractor by reviewing the list of “Problem Contractors” compiled by the Division of Consumer Affairs and available on their website at: <http://www.state.tn.us/consumer/>
Problem contractors on this list are those who failed to respond to mediation with CHAMP – Contractor/Homeowner Accountability Mediation Program.

To review disciplinary action, other than this list of revoked and suspended licenses, you may do so by going to the Division of Regulatory Board’s “Disciplinary Actions” located on the web at:
<http://www.state.tn.us/commerce/boards/archive.html>
